History Major and Concentration (for students and transfers entering in Fall 2010 or after)

Name: _____   Student ID: _____

Email/phone: _____

All students majoring in History must complete 36 credits. These will include a number of introductory courses, plus more advanced courses within a specific concentration (see the information sheet for full details). In the spaces below, indicate which courses you plan to take or have already taken to satisfy the requirements, as well as the semester and year for each course. If you're using transfer credits, identify the school where you took the course. If you're using AP credits, write "AP credit", plus your score on the exam, and provide verification (for more about the accommodation of AP credits, see the information sheet).

Introductory surveys in European (101 and 102) and U.S. (103 and 104) history
You must complete 12 credits in basic introductory surveys. Identify the semester and year for each below:

101: _____   102 or 002: _____   103: _____   104: _____

Introductory surveys in non-western history
You must choose TWO courses from the following: 105-106 (Latin America); 111 (Africa); 112 (East Asia); 121 (Brazil); 125-126 (Global History); 140-141 (China); 142 (Japan); 144-145 (South Asia); 146-147 (The Middle East); 148-149 (Islamic Civilization). Identify the course number and semester/year below.

course#_____ sem/yr:_____   course#_____ sem/yr:_____

Upper-division course in non-western history
Students must take one course at the 160-level or higher in the history of a region other than Europe and the U.S.

_____ : _____   Sem/yr: _____

Concentration
Students must complete an additional 3 courses within a particular area of study, and may either choose a concentration from among six standard options (Premodern, European, U.S., Regions other than Europe and the U.S., Jewish, or Gender), or design a thematic concentration with approval from the Director of Undergraduate Studies and Chair. Identify your concentration below, and list the courses.

Concentration: _____
(If not one of the standard six options, attach a description of the thematic course of study, signed by a faculty member and chair.)

Course #   Title of course   Semester and year

_____ : _____   _____

_____ : _____   _____

_____ : _____   _____

Colloquium
As a capstone for the major, you must complete a four-credit, writing-intensive colloquium (392W). This course need not be in your concentration.

392W: _____   Sem/yr: _____

Elective in history
For the remaining credits not outlined above, you may take any course, at any level, whether within your concentration or not.

_____ : _____   Sem/yr: _____

AP Credits
If claiming credits from more than one AP exam, add additional electives here: _____

Student: _____   Date: _____

Advisor: _____   Date: _____