

Queens College
Graduate School of Library and Information Studies

SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

Deadline: Thursday, April 7, 2022

The Admissions, Academic Standing and Student Affairs (AASSA) Committee invites all fully matriculated students of the Graduate School of Library and Information Studies, Queens College, CUNY to apply for the

H.W. WILSON SCHOLARSHIP for
FALL 2022 SEMESTER

We are pleased to announce that the GSLIS will offer a limited number of $1,000 academic scholarships for the Fall 2022 semester. The AASSA Committee will consider the following factors during its review of applications:

1. Applicants' completion of a minimum of 12 credits earned at the GSLIS excluding the current semester (Spring 2022) and a maximum of 24 credits.
2. Planned enrollment for at least six credit hours during the Fall 2022 semester.
3. Superior record of academic achievement.
4. A completed application including a Personal Statement of 500 to 800 words that describes in detail your short term and long term professional goals upon completion of your program, and a well articulated explanation of why you are qualified to receive a scholarship at this time.

Applications should be sent in one email submission with attachments (.doc, .docx or .pdf) to Dr. Shuheng Wu, Chair of the GSLIS Admissions, Academic Standing and Student Affairs Committee, at Shuheng.Wu@qc.cuny.edu and should include the following:

1. The completed application form (see immediately below)
2. A personal statement (500-800 words)
3. A current unofficial student transcript

The deadline for applications is Thursday, April 7, 2022.

The Admissions, Academic Standing and Student Affairs Committee exercises the right to determine the number of scholarships awarded each year. Students may receive an H.W. Wilson Scholarship only once while enrolled in the Graduate School of Library and Information Studies.
