Incorporating Open Educational Resources (OER) Into Our Courses

Faculty Presenters: Caitlin Colban-Waldron (GSLIS), Seth Lehman (Mathematics) and Tina Pagano (Psychology)

At this pop-up, we will talk about strategies faculty have used to bring accessible open educational resources (OER) into their courses, how they have organized these materials to meet learning objectives, and what impacts OER has had on faculty and students' experiences in the classroom. We invite you to join the conversation! Bring your questions, concerns, tools, and stories!
